The 2017 30th ACHPER International Conference program has been released!

The Conference program has something for everyone with a diverse offering of academic presentations, practical sessions, symposiums and workshops. ACHPER aims to support the professional engagement of educators in primary, secondary and tertiary, with sessions in Health and Physical Education (HPE), various approaches in sport pedagogy and by presenting sessions to strengthen the development of health and well-being in all.

Led by six world renowned speakers, national and international presenters will deliver this exciting program through a thematic approach based on the five propositions of the Australian Curriculum for HPE.

ACHPER is delighted to present this program that includes over 220 sessions.
