Facilitator Profiles:

Leanne Warner (Langley Group):

Leanne Warner is an inspiring and experienced leader and educator who is passionate about developing people, schools and organisations. A former CEO and Board Chair, Leanne has founded and led some of Australia's leading charities, non-profit networks and leadership forums. Her strategic leadership skills, stakeholder management experience, people orientation and passion add great value, especially during change and where stability and growth are desired. She enjoys the challenge of working in complex environments and brings great energy and a solutions-oriented approach to developing teams and coaching people to be the best they can be. Leanne has held positions as CEO of Sydney Children's Hospital Foundation, and CEO and General Manager of Cure Cancer Australia and Camp Quality. She has also worked as a secondary school teacher, in corporate environments and as quality and training manager responsible for developing and accrediting leadership programs in the UK. As a leader she has implemented organisational change, transformation and strengths based approaches which have delivered tangibly positive results in engagement, productivity and relationships. At Camp Quality, her initiatives included developing and implementing leadership programs for volunteer partners and community leaders across the country. She has a Masters in Community Management from the University of Technology, Sydney, and a Bachelor of Education from the University of Melbourne. She has completed the Sydney Leadership program with Social Leadership Australia and is currently studying a Diploma of Positive Psychology and Wellbeing. She is accredited in Strengths Profile and MSCEIT (emotional intelligence).

Mr Greg Gebhart:

Office of the Children's eSafety Commissioner

Greg Gebhart is the Senior Trainer for the Office of the Children's eSafety Commissioner and one of Australia's leading presenters. Greg has provided presentations to more than 500,000 participants at state, national and international events. He has a degree in Applied Science (Physical Education) and a Masters in Computer Education. Greg has a strong background in leadership and change and has held senior positions including Regional Manager for the Victorian Industry and Education Partnerships program and Chair of his Regional Adult Education Board. In his spare time, he is actively involved in a range of sporting bodies and is a volunteer firefighter. He has been recognised for his achievements and passion to help others many times, including being listed in the 'Who's Who' list of people that have shaped Australia and the International Society for Technology in Education global achievement award.
